Information for authors

Originality and responsibility:

Altarul Reîntregirii is scientific journal published three times a year, containing studies and materials from the humanities field: religion, theology, history, sociology, philology etc. It is advisable that the articles have not been previously published elsewhere; the studies which demonstrate a high degree of originality have priority at publication. All the responsibility for the opinions or critical positions belongs to the authors and do not represent the official position of Editorial Committee, of the Theology Faculty or of the Archbishopric of Alba-Iulia.

Format and scholarly content:

We strongly recommend that the studies should be limited to no more than 50000 characters (c. 18-20 A4 pages, spaced at 1.5 lines) typed using Times New Roman font, 12 pts. for the main text, (with diacritics for Romanian texts) and of 10 pts. for footnotes. All studies must be accompanied by an English abstract no longer then 1200 characters (c. 15 lines) and 5-8 keywords.

The studies containing ancient Greek, Hebrew or Slavonic characters must be accompanied by fonts used.

Reviewing procedure

All studies are peer-reviewed. The process can take 1-3 months. The purpose of this procedure is to help authors to improve their work after some constructive comments, looking for a better scientific background, novelties, clear wording, correct citation of bibliographical references etc. *A*fter an internal review process an article is forwarded (anonymously) to one or more members of our independent scientific board, someone who is especially qualified to assess a given article. The reviews of at least two specialists will be sent to the author. Accepted papers will be corrected according to the suggestions of the specialists. We encourage the dialog between the board and the authors until materials arrive to a final shape.

After printing, the author has the right to receive one copy of the journal issue which contains his/hers study.
